Online verification for all the students including those coming under PwD quota, will be done based on the document uploaded by individual students in the JoSAA portal. Online mode of verification will be considered purely provisional. For the students allotted through PwD quota, provisional verification will be done based on the medical certificates submitted by them. Their physical examination by certified medical board will be conducted once they are able to report physically at NIT Nagaland campus. The student will be offered admission based on the pending physical examination conducted at NIT Nagaland only.
